How the time is flying by! Thanks for your support with the numerous events that have been happening in school, it has been lovely to see so many parents in school, especially at Wednesday night's Parent's Evening. Please could we remind KSI parents to stand back from the school building and not to stand between the main building and art room at 3.00. This will allow all classes to come out safely to their home time posts and avoid children being lost amongst the crowd thereby ensuring their safety.

Jayne Kennedy.

Parents Evening

Thank you to all of those parents who attended this week's parents evening. Apologies once again to those parents with appointments to see Mrs Matthews who was unable to attend parents evening due to illness. Mrs Matthews will send out details of rearranged appointments as soon as she can. If you were unable to attend Parent's Evening tonight for any reason please see your child's class teacher to make an appointment to see them.

Book Fair

Thank you for the brilliant support our Book Fair received this week. We sold over £400 worth of books which has enabled us to buy some great new books, chosen by the children for their classes from our commission

Dyslexia Friendly School

As part of our work towards becoming a dyslexia friendly school we will be planning a coffee morning for all parents whose children who have a dyslexic profile. The Parent Steering group met this week decided to invite all parents into school in January 2015 to discuss dyslexia friendly practice at the school and the support offered. Our specialist dyslexia teacher will be invited to this event to talk to use about dyslexia and strategies we can use at home and school to help our children. For more information on dyslexia visit the British Dyslexia Association's website at www.bdadyslexia.org.uk

Christmas Dinner

Please remember to complete the Christmas dinner letter by Wednesday 2nd December if your child normally has a packed lunch but would like to have a school Christmas Dinner on Wednesday 17th December

School Calendar

Unfortunately the school calendar was not attached to the attendance letters given out at Parent's Evening so we have put it on the back of today's newsletter for you. We apologise for any confusion. This may have caused
